THE PHILOSOPHICAL REVIEW.

Edited by J. G. SCHURMAN and J. E. CREIGHTON

THE REVIEW is a bi-monthly journal devoted to the interests of general Philosophy, and aims at the organization, diffusion, and increase of philosophical knowledge and activity. It usually contains 128 pages, of which about one-half is given to original articles and discussions. The remainder comprises carefully prepared book-reviews, summaries of articles appearing in the leading American and European philosophical journals, and brief notices of the contents and standpoint of new books.

The tables of contents of the first three numbers of the present volume will best indicate the character and scope of the REVIEW.
